Forum series scheduled

The Woman's Club of Palo Alto has initiated a Forum as a new interest area for the 1959-60 club year.

The organization has recently become associated with the World Affairs Council of Northern California in San Francisco, a private, non-partisan, non-profit group devoted to community education in world affairs.

WOMAN'S CLUB members and their guests will hear four Forum speakers during the year.

Scheduled to address the group Oct. 21 is Ed Radenzel of the San Francisco Chronicle, who will discuss "The Far East in Ferment." The Nov. 27 speaker will be Felix Greene of Palo Alto on "Inside Russia Today."

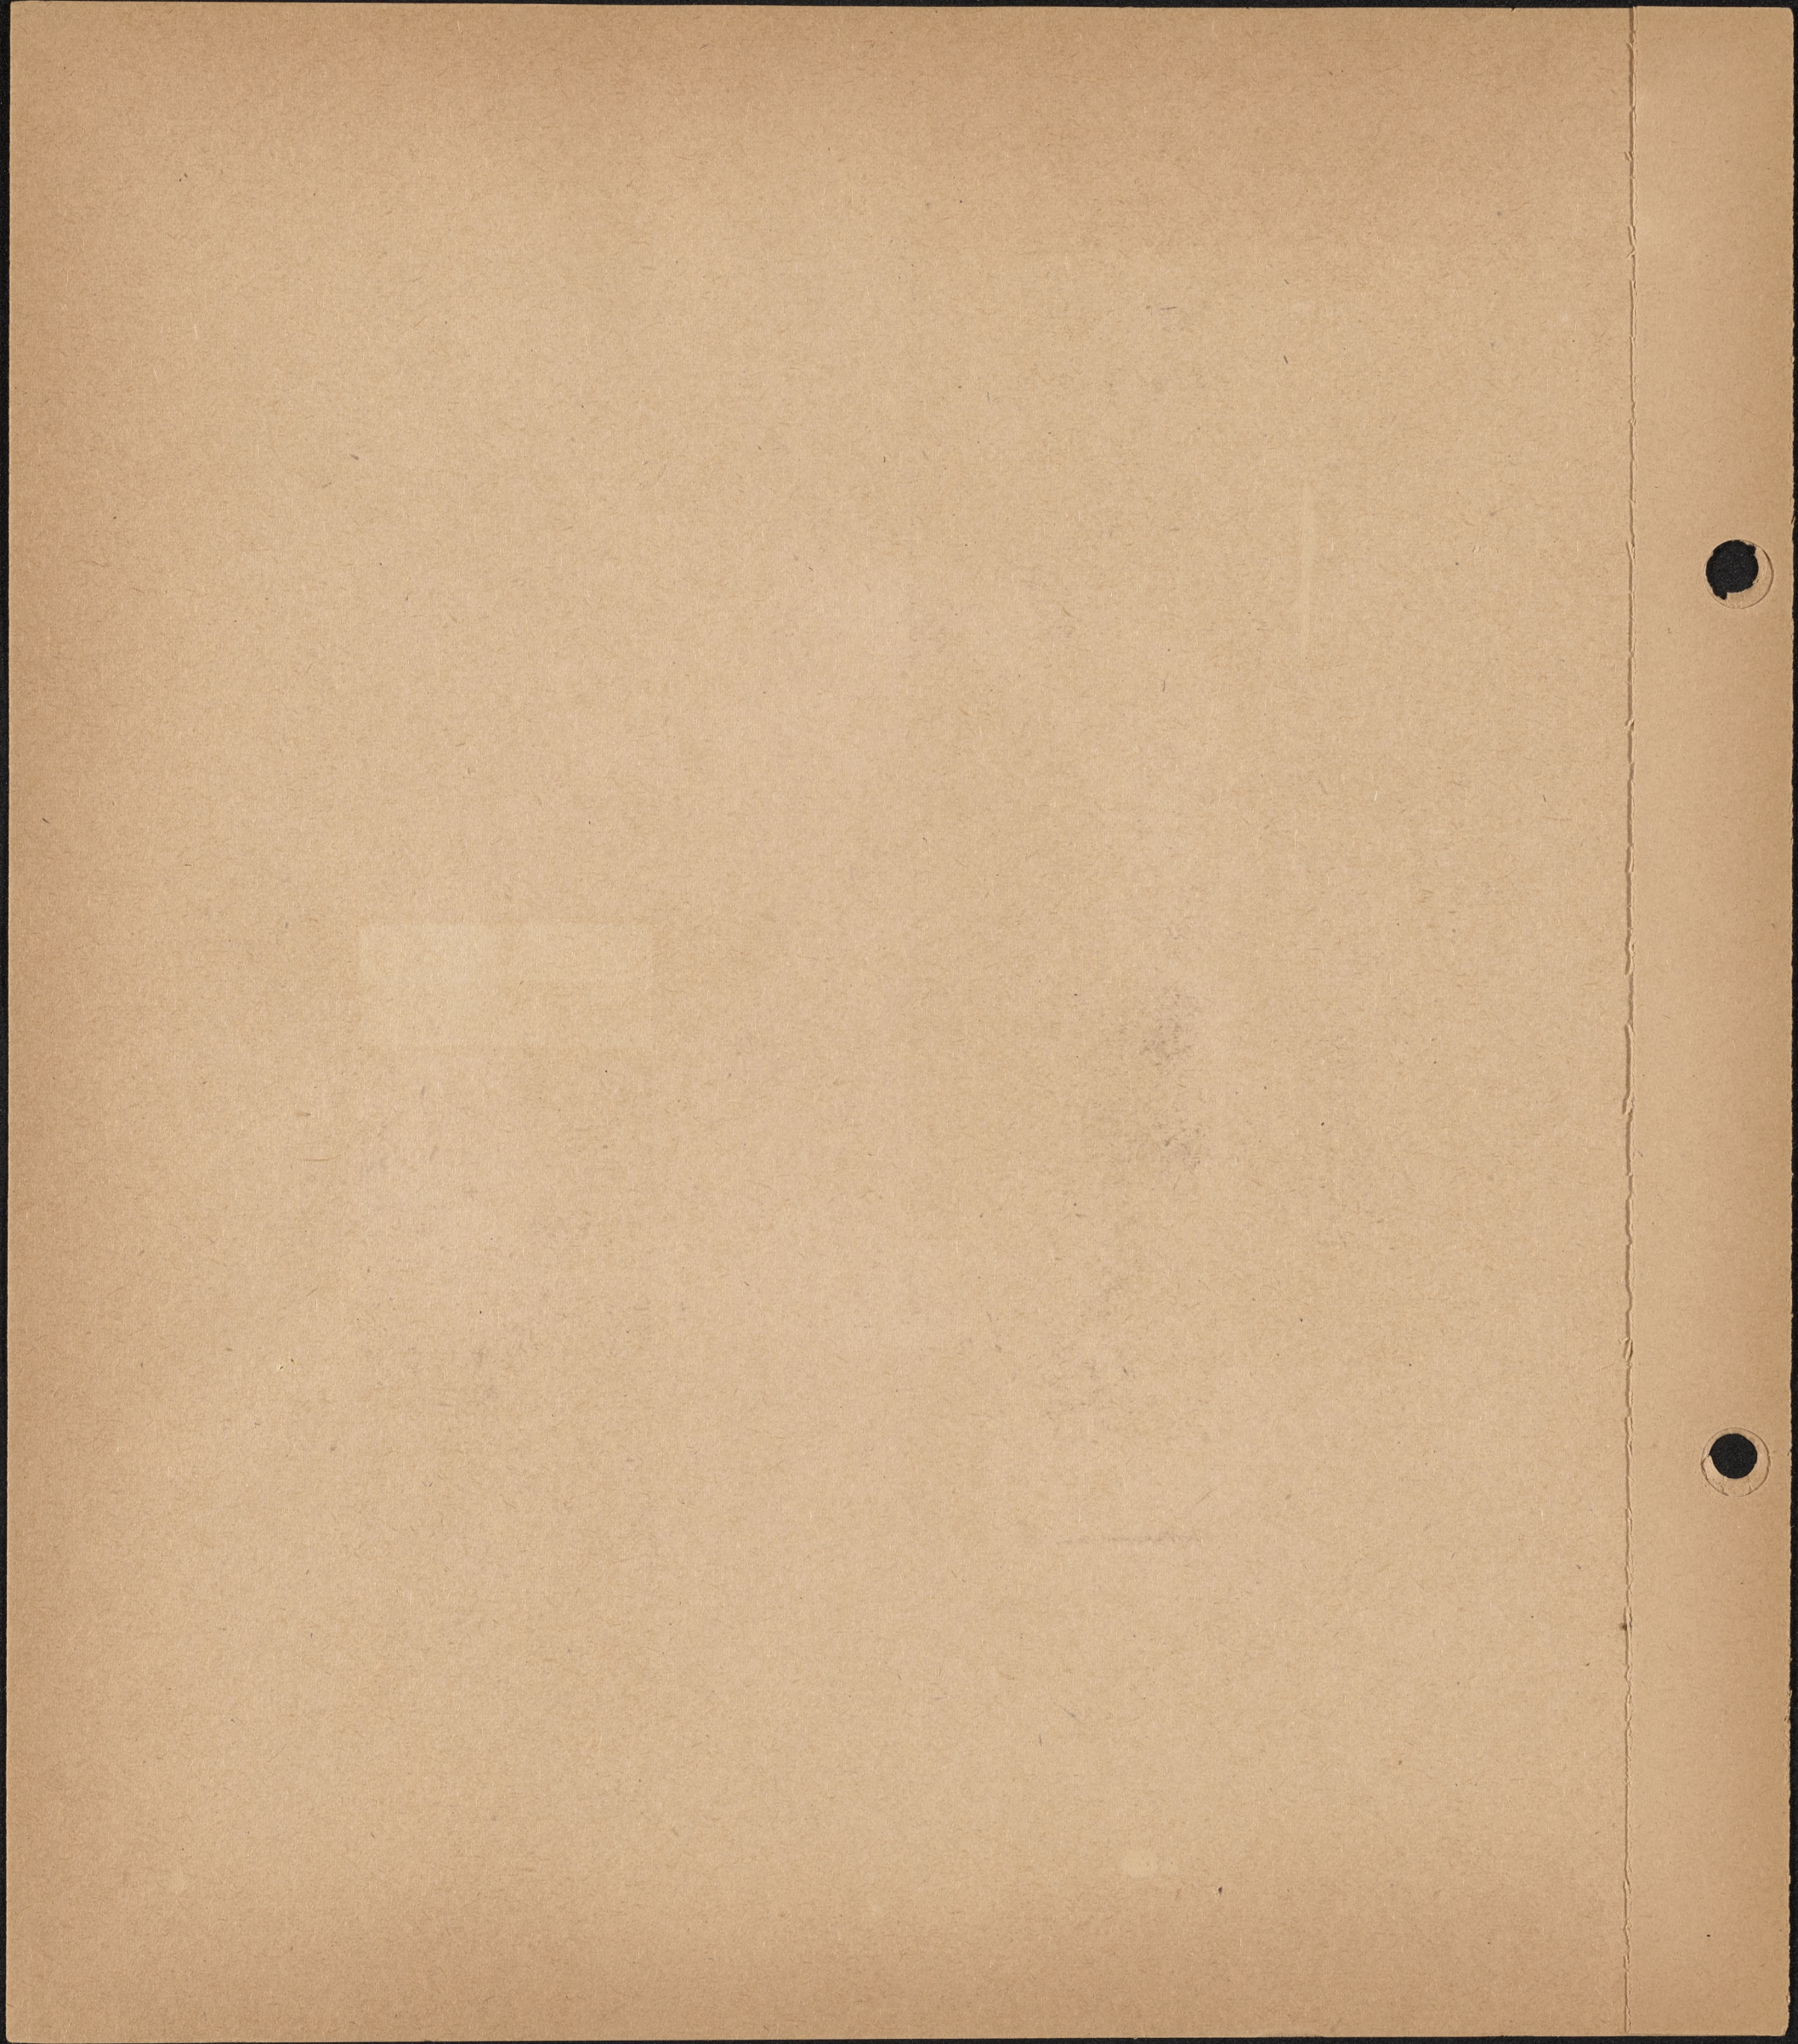

Graham Stuart, emeritus professor of political science at Stanford, Feb. 17 will speak on "Our Diplomacy in an Atomic Age." Dorothy Crawford of Los Angeles, a monologist, April 20 will present original character sketches in the Forum's final program.

The World Affairs Council's purposes are to develop an informed public opinion, to stimulate interest in world affairs through a program of lectures, forums, institutes, study and discussion groups and to facilitate cooperation among organizations with similar aims.

Forum speaker to discuss conditions in Red China

FELIX GREENE
Forum speaker

Members and guests of the Palo Alto Woman's Club will hear an eye witness report on conditions inside Red China, when Felix Greene, a seasoned observer of the international scene, gives a forum address at the clubhouse, 475 Homer Avenue Friday evening at 8.

Mr. Greene is a British-born businessman now living in California, where he directs an importing company. Last year he traveled to Hong Kong and inside the Chinese mainland to see and evaluate changes which had taken place there since it became a Communist state.

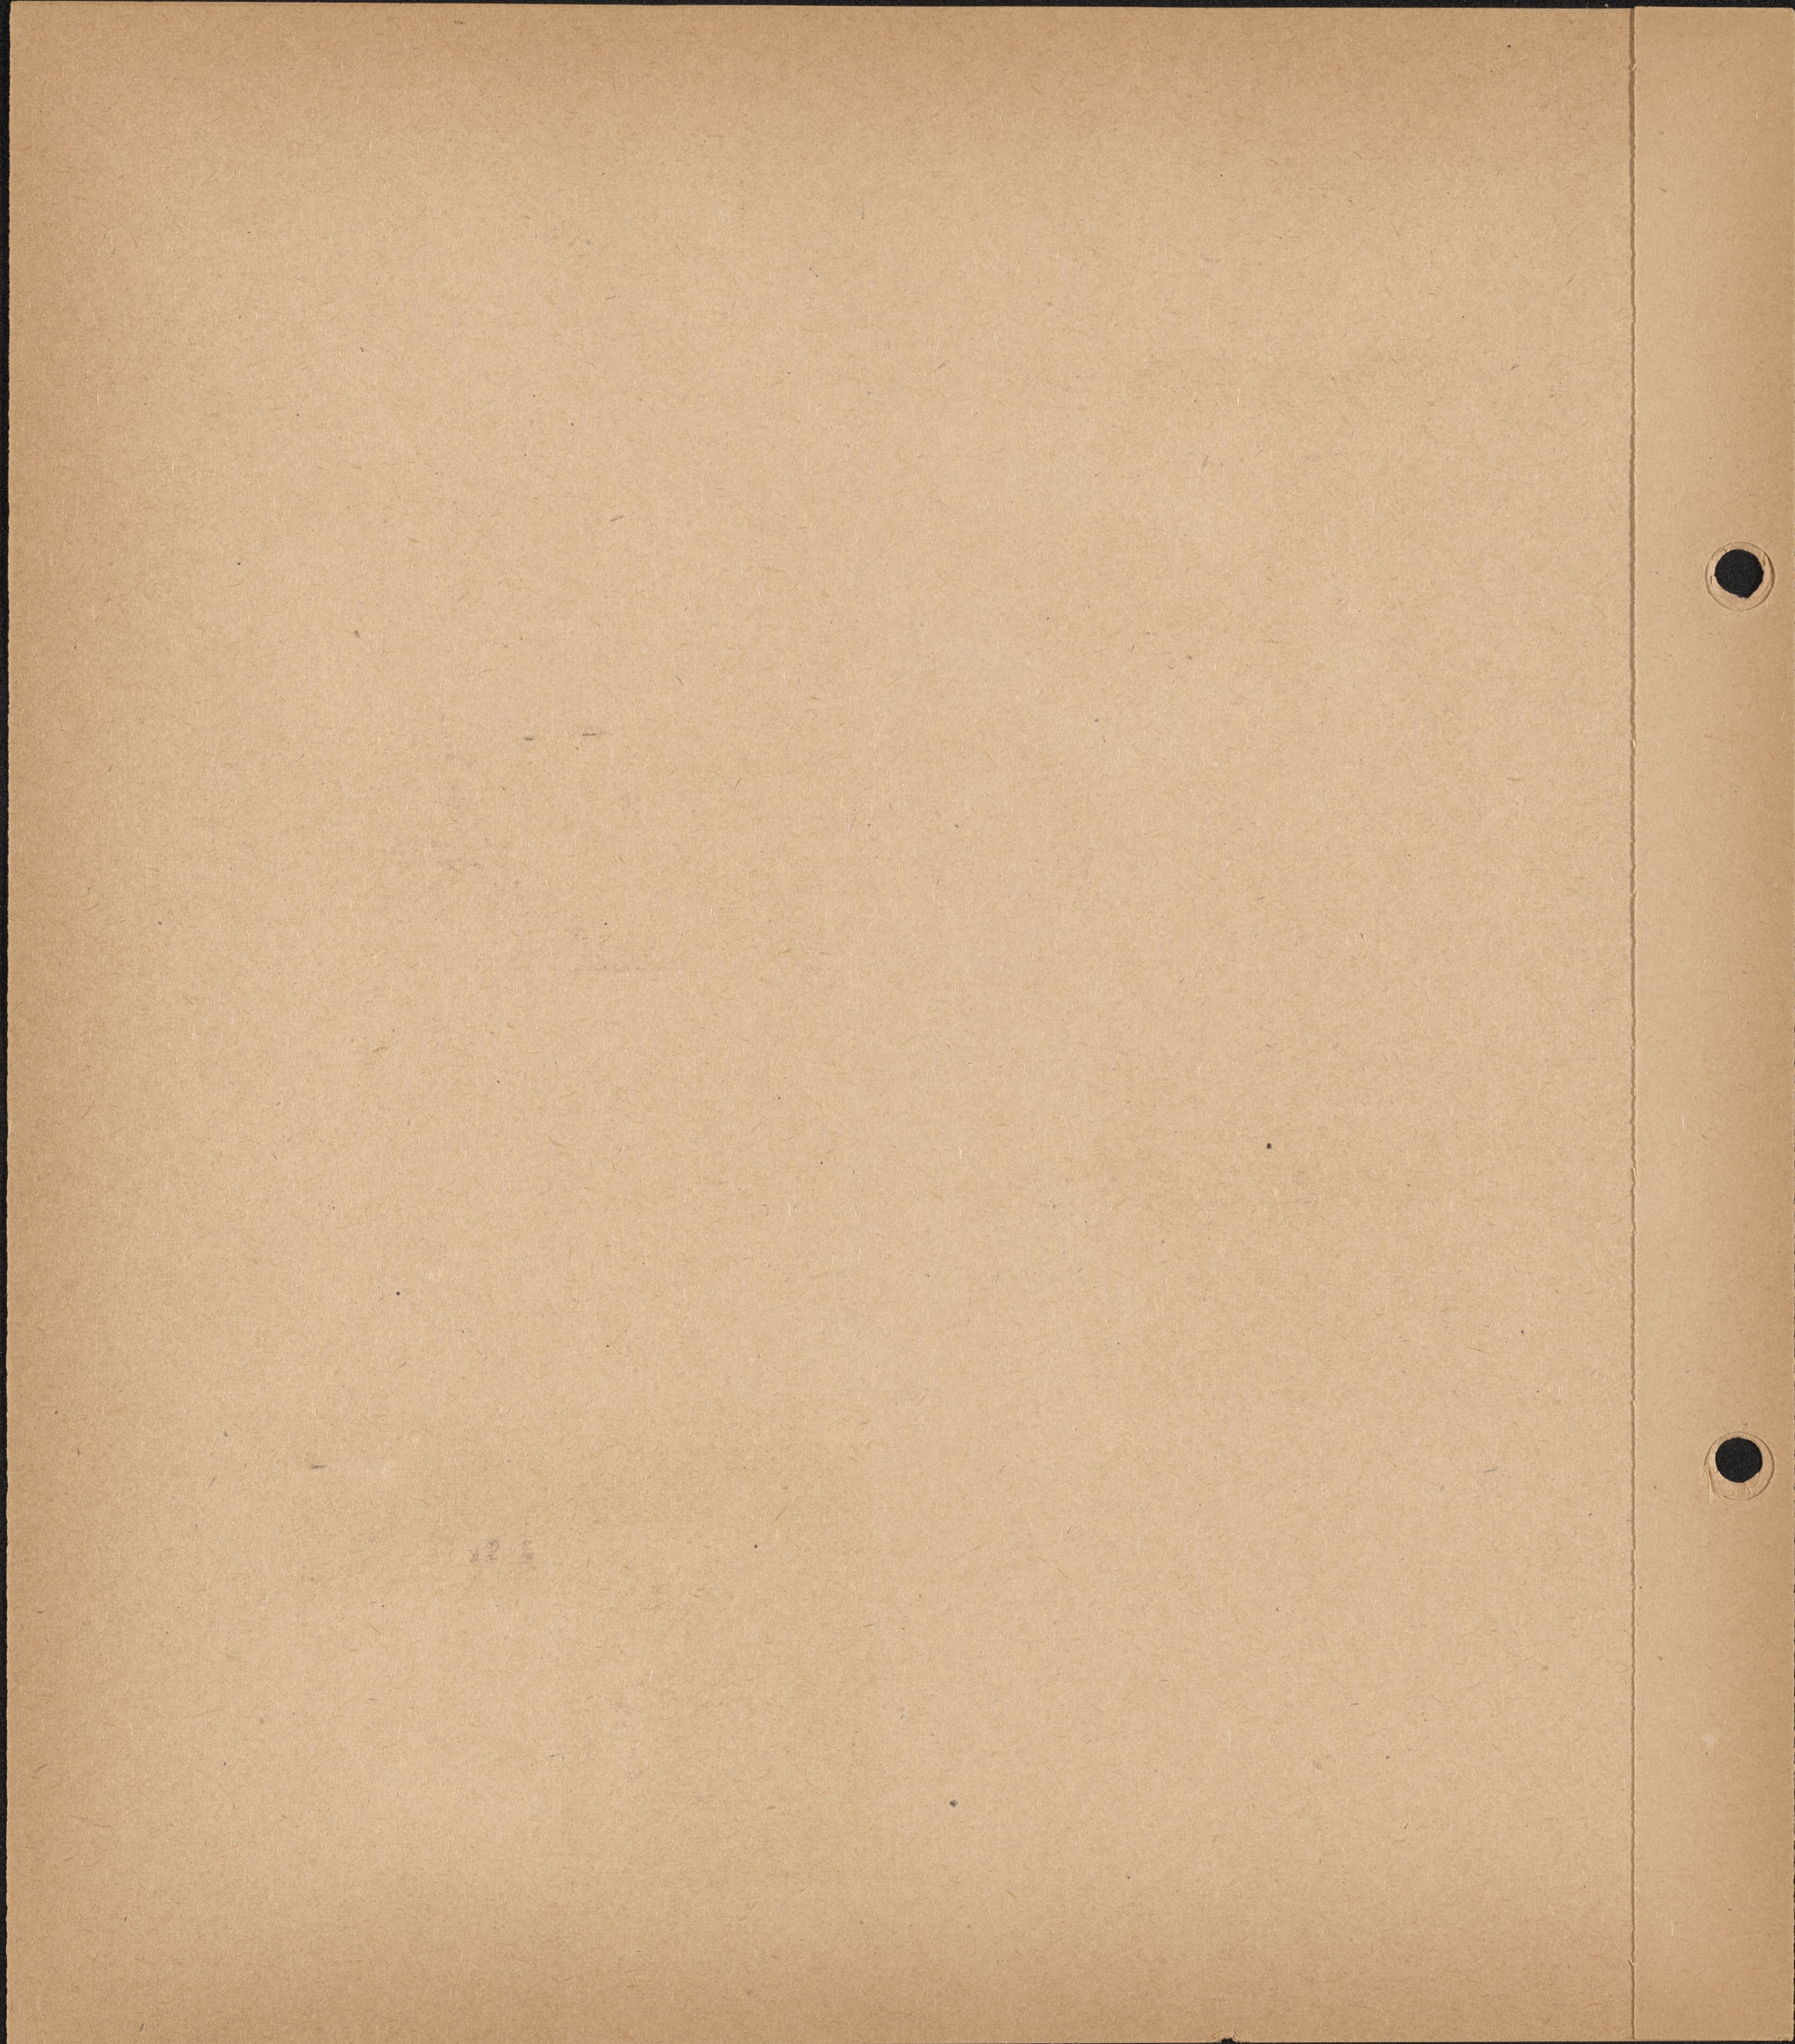

HIS SURVEY took him to Canton, Hangkow, Nanking, Shanghai, Tientsin and Peking. Mr. Greene returned to America firmly convinced that Red China is not tied solidly to the Soviet Union and any hold that Russia has could be broken.

In London he was affiliated with the British Broadcasting Corporation until he was sent to America to head the BBC staff here. He frequently broadcasts news commentaries from the West Coast. To keep abreast of world events he travels constantly and makes at least two trips to Europe each year.

Mr. Greene will be introduced by Harold Kay. Dessert will be served at 7:30 p.m. before his address. Refreshment chairman will be Mrs. Donald Umphrey and Mrs. Alden Reed.

Woman's Club of Palo Alto:
Regular meeting Wednesday at clubhouse, 475 Homer Ave., at 2 p.m. will be preceded by 1 p.m. "silent auction" with Mrs. Joseph Hefner in charge. Women consider resolutions

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Delegates to the 57th annual convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs considered resolutions today ranging from aid to needy children to increasing the size of the California Highway Patrol.

About 500 of the expected 1,500 women from throughout the state were present for the session.

RESOLUTIONS discussed included:

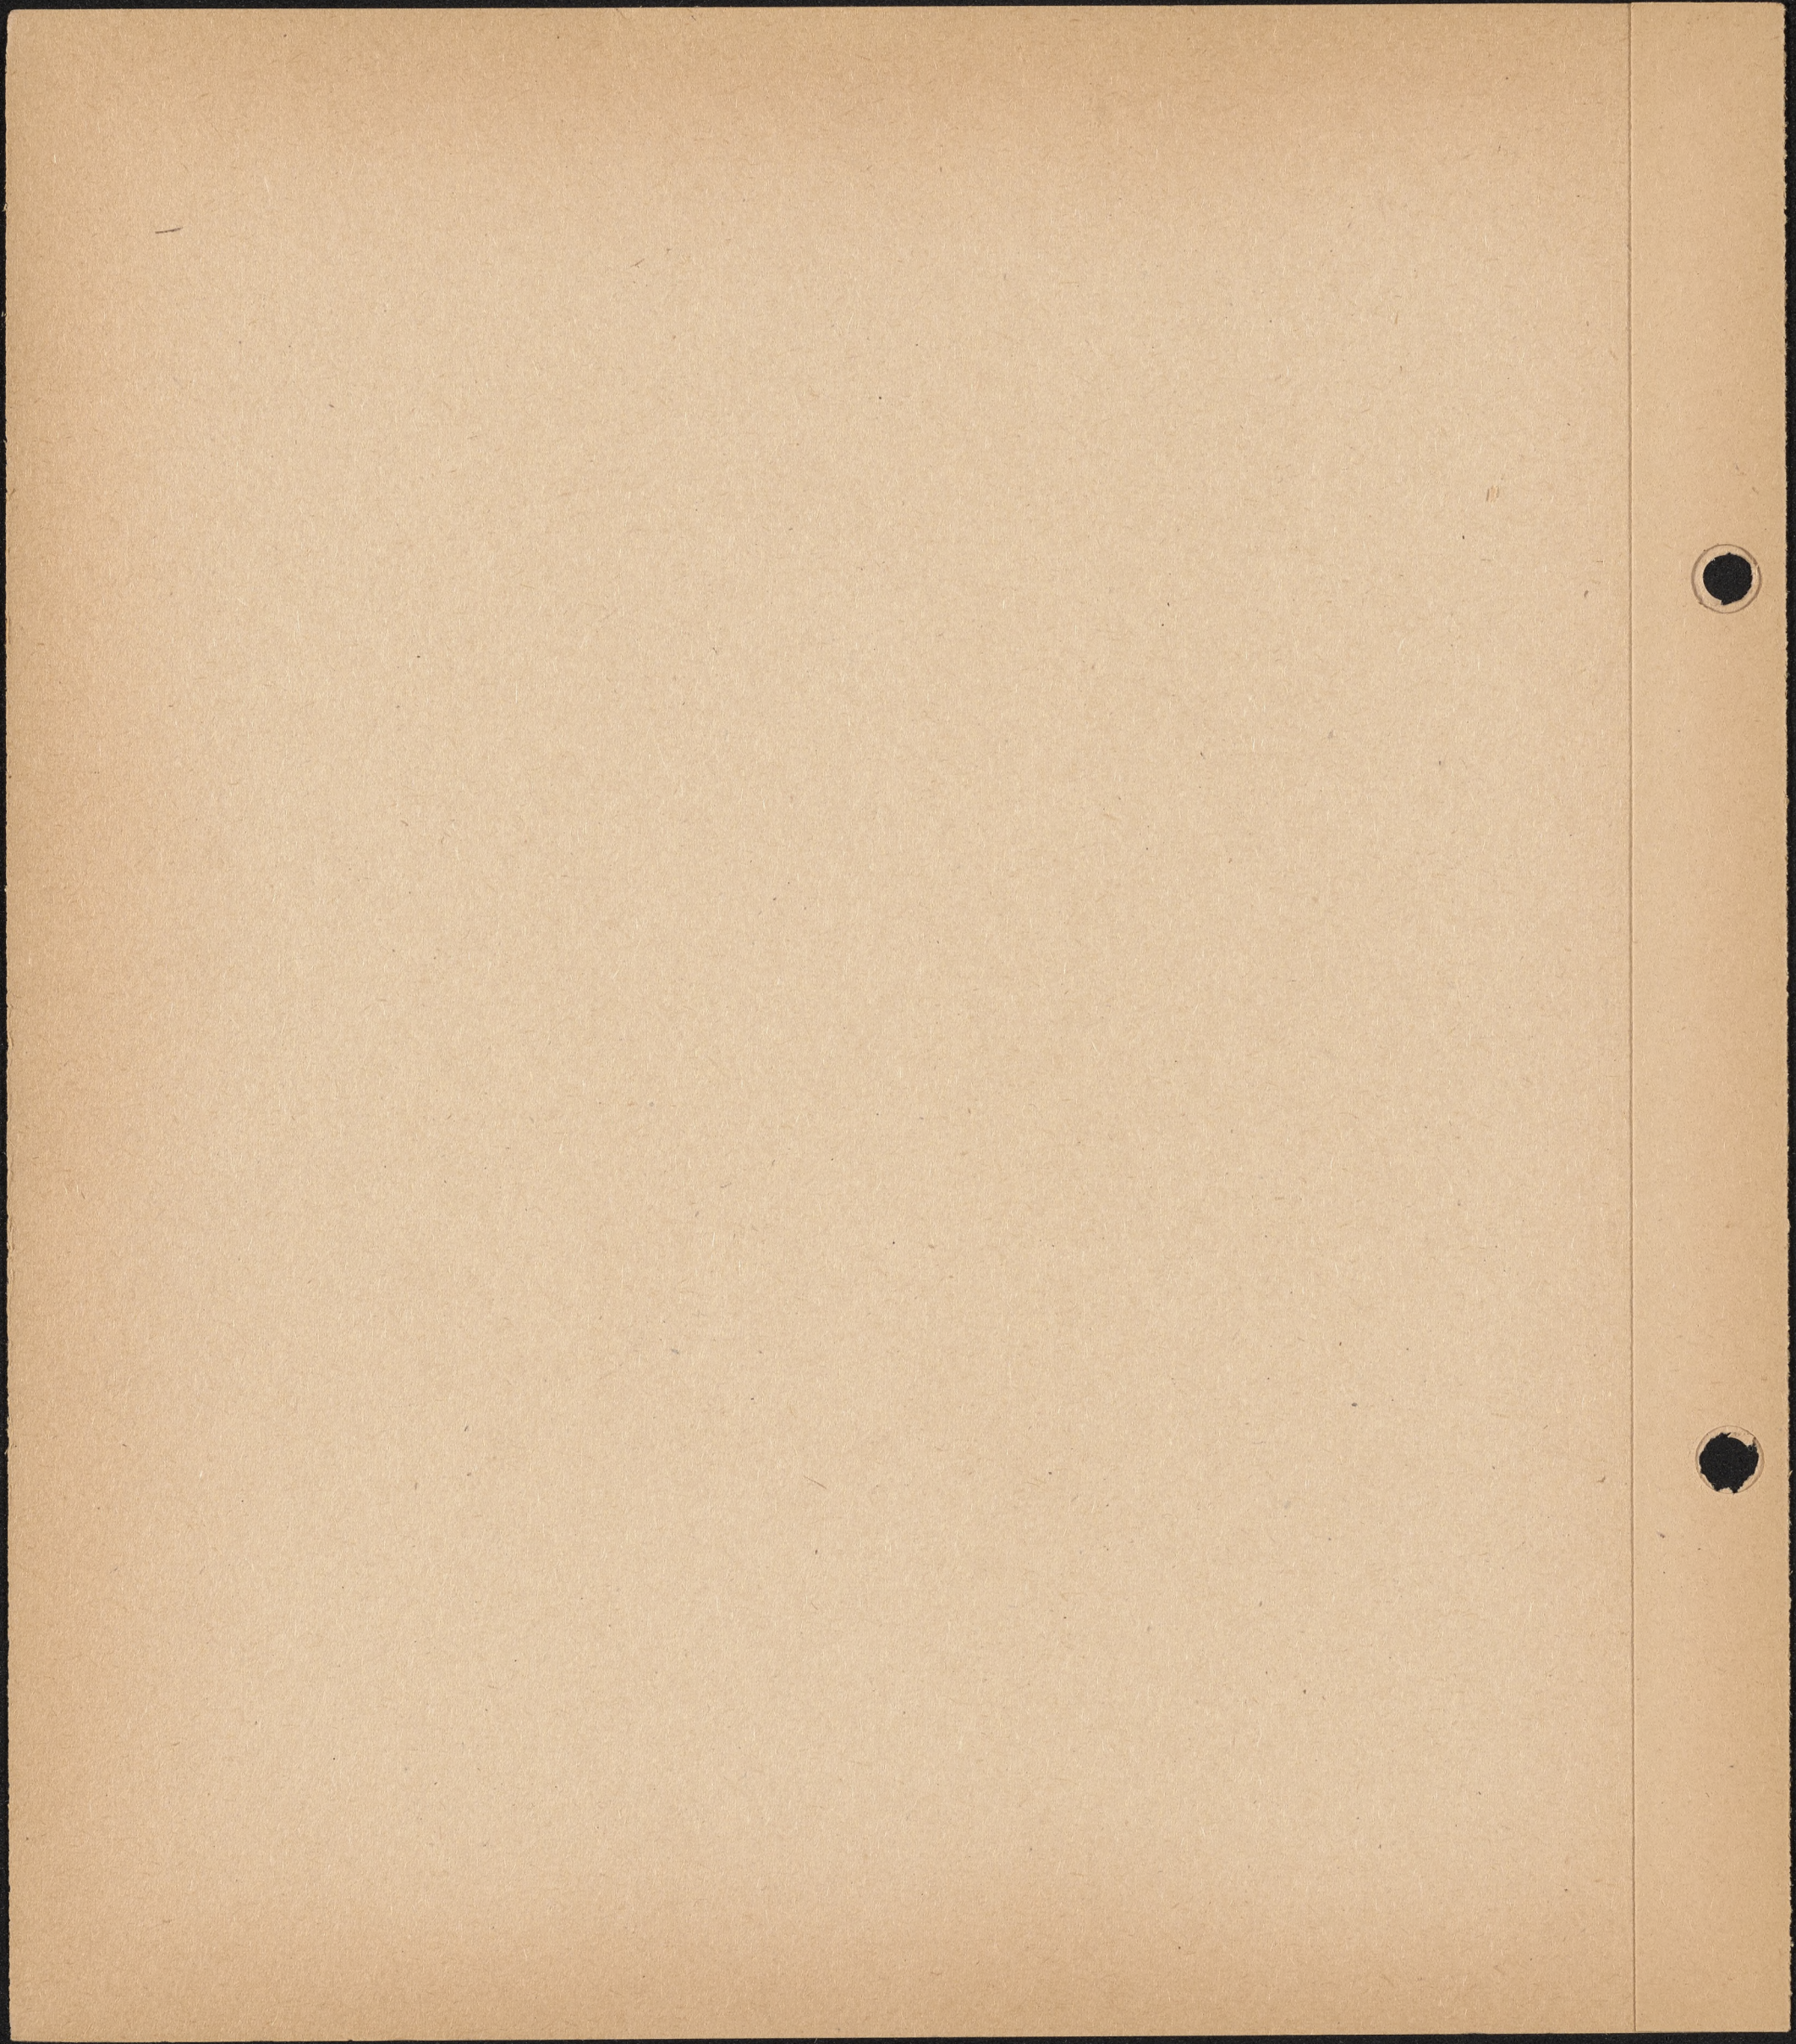

A request to tighten legislation for needy children to spell out who is eligible and to cut out frauds.

A resolution urging the State Legislature to order education for juveniles who are confined to state hospitals.

A request for stronger, more uniform narcotics laws in the state.

A request for the State Division of Highways to bypass the home of the late writer John Muir in Martinez. The federation resolution said the home is in the path of a planned highway.

A proposal to increase the number of California highway patrolmen in proportion to the number of registered vehicles in the state.
